Terms of Membership

Membership is granted on an annual basis and renews automatically unless the member gives notice. The association keeps a register of members and the register is open for inspection by any member on reasonable notice. Membership confers the right to attend general meetings, to vote on resolutions, and to use the library and reading rooms during published opening hours.

A member may resign at any time by written notice to the secretary. Subscriptions already paid are not refundable. The committee may suspend or terminate membership where a member has acted in a way that brings the association into disrepute, but only after the member has had a fair opportunity to answer the complaint.

Personal data held about members is used solely for the administration of membership and is never sold or shared with third parties. Members may request a copy of the data held about them at any time.
